Staffordshire
Fire and Rescue Service
preventing • protecting • responding

In 2002 Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service opened its treasured Memorial Garden, in association with the Queens Golden Jubilee. The Memorial Garden is located at Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service Headquarters in Stone. The site for the garden was chosen for its peaceful tranquillity, and its central location.

Our Aims

- To provide a lasting and evolving memorial garden for remembrance of past employees of Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service.
- To provide and maintain the memorial garden for the benefit, comfort and solace of bereaved families and friends, which allows thought and reflection at any time.
- To raise sufficient funds to enable the memorial garden to be maintained and developed and to secure it's long term future.

Facilities Available

- Entry in Book of Remembrance
- Scattering of Ashes
- Memorial Marker (Cost for provision of marker)
- Friends of the Memorial Garden (Donation/Annual Subscription)
